

WELCOME TO THE DIOCESE OF PHOENIX

If you haven't heard it lately (or, heaven forbid, ever) we'll say it now: Welcome!

You're reading this special edition of The Catholic Sun because

- a) you're registered at your local parish (kudos to you);
- b) you've kept current with your subscription; or
- c) you noticed this newspaper on a friend or family member's coffee table and are interested in learning more about your Catholic faith and community.

For whatever reason you're here, we welcome you to the Catholic community of the Diocese of Phoenix.

We also welcome you to take a few moments to discover all that the Phoenix Diocese has to offer. The Church's downtown Phoenix headquarters, better known as the Diocesan Pastoral Center, is home to dozens of ministries, apostolates and charities that impact you, your family and a half million Catholics throughout the state. Inside you'll find contact information for the many services offered by the Diocese of Phoenix and other Catholic organizations.

So whether you're a seasoned Arizona native or a newcomer to the community, we hope you'll spend some time discovering all the services available to you.

Make this four-page special section a keepsake. Hang it on the fridge or share it with a friend.

Most importantly, we welcome you to encounter the living Christ in the hundreds of thousands of people who make up this Catholic community.

Welcome to the diocese from your friends at The Catholic Sun.

THE DIOCESE OF PHOENIX CATHOLIC CEMETERIES AND MORTUARY

“One of the most important precepts of the Church is the corporal work of mercy – “to bury the dead.” By this precept the Church shows its respect for the dignity of the body, the Temple of the Holy Spirit, and its belief in “the resurrection of body and life everlasting.” The burial of our departed testifies that those who have died and gone before us remain a part of Christ's body, the Church” said Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted.

Catholic Cemeteries and Mortuary are proud providers of The Catholic Heritage Plan. For more information about pre-planning your Catholic funeral or cemetery arrangements please contact Mr. Gray at (602)267-1329 or visit www.diocesephoenix.org/cemeteries.

More than 500,000 Catholics call the four counties that make up the Phoenix Diocese home — that's more than twice the amount of Catholics the diocese had when it was first established back in 1969. And as Catholics from throughout the nation continue to flock to the region, the offices that administer the services and ministries to the community have made strides to keep up with the growth. Here is a quick look at the agencies, services and ministries that are available to parishioners — which, of course, could not be possible without the faith and work of the region's Catholics. These services, plus more, are here for all to share and contribute to. For more information, call (602) 257-0030 or visit the Web at www.diocesephoenix.org.
